

Women in Tax - Purposeful Pursuits Brisbane

1 CPD hour

As we progress out of the restrictions of the pandemic, we reflect on the transformational way businesses and individuals interact with each other across industries and in personal relationships. Tax practitioners and women have reimaged and broadened their areas of responsibility. Looking forward, women are now considering their main purpose and how can they have the most impact on topics that are most important to them.

At this networking lunch, learn how a panel of experienced and inspiring tax professionals have responded to challenges in the way they work within the tax community. Discover:

- Changes in the way we work and interact with our colleagues, the plans we make for our careers, and our responsibilities and recognition in the tax community
- How challenges have helped us clarify our purpose and what it means to be a tax advisor and people leader in a progressive profession
- The opportunities, insights and inspirations creating clarity and purpose in our most meaningful pursuits
- And perhaps most importantly, how we take that drive and motivation – that purpose – and transform it into real-world impact for our clients, our community and ourselves.

Panellists:

- Melinda Peters, CTA, McCullough Robertson
- Sally Preston, CTA, BDO
- Tara Cuddihy, CTA, PwC

Facilitator:

Anna Chipperfield, Director - People, Culture and Operations, BusinessDEPOT

At The Tax Institute, the health and wellbeing of our members, delegates and employees is our top priority. Whilst returning to face-to-face events, we continue to actively monitor the situation regarding COVID-19 and follow the latest advice and guidelines issued by the Department of Health, the World Health Organisation and relevant State authorities.

Please note, final implementation of any of these measures is subject to Federal and State Government requirements at the time of each event. To see The Tax Institute's full COVID-19 Event Guidelines, click here.
